

JESSIE NEWS

(Too late for last week)

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Egerman left on Saturday for a week's visit to different points in Minnesota.

We wish to announce that our store will be closed on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and we kindly ask all to be in on the other evenings of the week to do their shopping.—Retzlaff-Rickford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Green visited at the Emil Lowe home on Sunday.

These are some of the fine bargains we have to offer: Children's white canvas shoes at 98c per pair, children's white Cinderella pumps at 98c per pair; women's black and white canvas slipper at $1.79 per pr.—Retzlaff-Rickford.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Arne visited at the Albert Rickford home Sunday.

School closed in the Jessie school on Friday with a lovely picnic at Lake Jessie. All the children enjoyed a lovely time.

Rudolph Trost left on Tuesday for Minneapolis where he will visit for several months.

Hans Moen has purchased the Fred Tollefson residence and will move in from the farm next week. We welcome Mr. Moen and family to our little town.

Real bargains in white footwear for men, women and children at Retzlaff-Rickford, Jessie.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sues entertained the Ladies Aulter society on Sunday.

Mrs. Graham McCulloch and Mrs. H. S. Maden autoed to Coopers-town on Friday.

Fred Tollefson and Carl Rickford autoed to James' town over Sunday.

A large number of Jessie folks attended the high school graduation exercises on Friday evening.

H. J. Ketter motored to Coopers-town on Saturday.

Mrs. Milla Kingsley is visiting at the Max Wild home for a few weeks.