

JESSIE NEWS

Clarence Anderson returned last Wednesday from Fargo where he had undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Egerman entertained the Catholic ladies aid on Sunday.

Alfred Johnson purchased a pure bred stallion from Carl Rickford, last week.

A large number of Jessie folks attended the senior class play at Cooperstown Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rickford entertained the following guests at Sunday dinner: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rickford and Grandma Schmidt.

We have a fine supply of iced drinks, right off the ice.—Retzlaff & Rickford, Jessie.

Mrs. Graham McCulloch autoed to Cooperstown on Friday.

Church services were held in the Catholic church Sunday.

Matt Hillar fell off a tank of grain and hurt his back. He is improving however.