

JESSIE NEWS

A large number of Jessie folks attended the Play Day exercises at Cooperstown on Saturday. The Jessie school took part in the exercises and athletic events. The Indian dance given by Miss Anderson's class received a good deal of praise.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Egerman motored to Cando, N. Dak., on Saturday and returned Monday.

Wonderful bargains in oxforde and pumps at Retzlaff-Rickford's.

"The Deacon Entangled," the play given at Binford by the Dazey Dramatic club was well represented from the Jessie community.

Paul Koloen purchased a large Mitchell car last week.

Frank Langle drove up Saturday from Cannon, by truck, to get some seed from Ed Zimprich.

Oh Boy! Cookies at Retzlaff & Rickford, 2 1/4 pound for 59c. Fresh and delicious.

Fred Tollefson was an over-Sunday visitor at Cooperstown.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Madsen drove to Sutton to visit at the H. Madsen home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Wild visited with relatives in the Sutton community over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lowe were at Cooperstown over Sunday to have their daughter christened.

Let's all get busy and clean up the tin cans and rubbish around our little town. There is no telling what success we will have in beautifying if we but try. Each one doing a little will help a lot as a whole.