

NEWS FROM

Caroline Pella spent Sunday at her home.

Look for our ad in this issue.—
Retzlaff-Rickford.

Services were held in the Catholic church at Jessie on Sunday.

Agnes Anderson was a Coopers-town passenger on Friday.

We pay a high price for poultry of all kinds.—Retzlaff-Rickford.

Fred Tollefson was a Fargo passenger on Saturday, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Arndt, Fred Rickford and Florence Spafford visited at the Paul Rickford home on Sunday.

Mrs. Clarence Wild, Mrs. Milo Kingsley and Mrs. John Jackson autoed to Jessie from Sutton on Friday bringing Mrs. Max Wild home. She had visited there for several days.

Jessie school finished its second month of school Friday, Oct. 28th. The following pupils received a half day holiday as a reward for being neither absent nor tardy during the month: Joseph Erickson, Esther Arndt, Goldy Arndt, George Rule, Earl Ressler, Lawrence Ressler, Gerald Rickford, Agnes Vaade, Bernard Trost, Lillian Ketter