

NEWS FROM

Remnants at Rickford-Retzlaff.

Miss Florence Spafford spent the week end as a guest of Miss Ovidia Anderson.

Miss Agnes Anderson, Miss Gertrude Pfeifer and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rule autoed to Cooperstown on Thursday of last week, to attend the intertainment given for the teachers of the county.

Mrs. Frank Arndt was a Cooperstown visitor on Saturday.

Remnants at Rickford-Retzlaff.

The quarantine has been released for the Julius Wurst family and they feel the joy of freedom once more.

Clarence Dahl gave a political address in the Vangen school house Saturday evening.

Services were held in the Catholic church at Jessie on Sunday.

Joseph Erickson was ill for a few days last week and was unable to attend school on that account.

Mr. and Mrs. George Painter of Jessie, autoed to Revere Monday to be at the bedside of Mrs. Painter's father who is having a siege of illness.

Miss Agnes Anderson was a Cooperstown passenger Friday, returning Saturday.

A large number of Jessie folks attended the Nestos political meeting in Cooperstown Monday evening.

Wallace McCulloch, who is attending high school at Cooperstown, spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Pella and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Broodeson visited at the Joe Drushba home at Revere Wednesday, last week.

A party was given in honor of Fred Tussee at the Andrew Anderson home Saturday. A large crowd attended and everyone enjoyed a good time.

Remnants at Rickford-Retzlaff.