

NEWS FROM

Cretonna, 5 yards for 95c, at Retzlaff & Rickford, Jessie.

Nashua Woolnap blankets at Retzlaff & Rickford, Jessie.

Wm. Arndt, of Cooperstown, was a Jessie visitor on Monday of this week.

Lydia and Marcella McCallus visited over Sunday at the Wm. Trost home.

Miss Florence Spafford spent the week end at the Albert Rickford home.

School started on Monday again, everyone feeling the joy of school once more.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed J. Fiebiger autoed to Casselton Tuesday on a pleasure trip.

Look over our grocery specials for October in our ad in this issue. —Retzlaff & Rickford, Jessie.

A number of Jessie folks attended the dance at Walum, Friday night of last week, and report a dandy time.

Albert and Elizabeth Rickford motored to Sutton Sunday to visit at the homes of Milo Kingsley and John Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Culien Mack returned from Shell Lake, Wisconsin, Saturday, where they had visited at Mr. Mack's home.

Charlotte, Margeret and Mildred Cunningham visited at the Albert Rickford home from Thursday until Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Wild and Chester autoed to Sutton Sunday. Mrs. Wild remained there to visit at her daughter's and son's homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Eggerman and family motored to Valley City on Tuesday of last week, the trip being made for business purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rickford, Henry and Herman Lowe were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Green.

C. P. Dahl returned Saturday evening from St. Paul, having shipped a car load of stock. George McCulloch motored to Hannaford to meet him.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zimprich of Casselton, arrived in Jessie with their car of personal property last Friday and will make their home on the Robert Thorn farm.

Mrs. A. L. Green motored to Cooperstown Thursday to have her daughter, Winnefred, undergo an operation for the removal of her tonsils and adenoids. Winnefred is recovering nicely from the operation. Miss Agnes Anderson returned with them on Saturday.

Robert Thorn was considered a lucky man, when last Wednesday he and Mr. Madson went out duck hunting and a large flock of geese passed over him not further away than he could reach them. And shoot he did, receiving as a reward three geese.