

Monday.

Melvin Johnson, accompanied by his sister, Miss Olga, motored to Cooperstown last evening, and returned with their parents, who have been there since Mr. Johnson had his broken arm reset more than a week ago. Up to now it was not advisable to attempt the journey home.

The Times is pleased to announce