

meetings.

Sunvis Johnson met with an accident Saturday afternoon while at his regular employment at the Thompson Yards carpenter shop at Aberdeen, South Dakota. He caught his left hand in a machine in such a manner as to lose his little finger entirely. He also cut the other three pretty badly, but will not lose them or the use of them. He is being cared for at the Aberdeen hospital.

---

---