

for the west.

F. H. King reports to The Times that he has eaten potatoes and peas from his garden this year as early as last Sunday, June 25. This is unusually early, according to Mr. King, and proves again the oft-repeated statement that North Dakota doesn't have to take the back seat for any of 'em.

The base ball game at Hannaford