

home during the holidays.

Mark King arrived home Saturday from northern Minnesota, where he had been employed in the woods.

For a real good cup of coffee and