

news to her many friends.

C. F. Ringlee went to Fargo, Monday, to visit his son-in-law, L. P. Larson, who is recovering from the effects of an operation which he underwent at St. John's hospital, last Saturday, for appendicitis. From last reports the patient is getting along as well as can be expected.