

BINFORD SCHOOL WILL HAVE CLASS OF SIX GRADUATES

GRADUATION EXERCISES FOR CLASS OF '22 WILL BE GIVEN IN OPERA HOUSE ON FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 2.

The class of 1922 of the Binford High School, numbering six, will receive diplomas at the commencement exercises to be held at the opera house on Friday evening, June 2nd. The program begins at 8:00 o'clock.

Prof. O. J. Hanson, president of the Fargo Business college, has been secured as speaker for the occasion. He has chosen for his subject, "The Man Worth While."

The members of this year's graduating class are, Howard G. Lewis, Rosalie Amlie, Manfred Knapp, Mabel P. Simonson, and Florence M. Greenland. Howard Lewis is Valedictorian and Miss Amlie is Salutatorian of their class.

The class colors are royal blue and white, the class flower is the white carnation, and the class motto, "Work Wins Everything."

The baccalaureate sermon will be given on Sunday evening, May 28, at the United Lutheran church by Rev. H. O. Bach.

Following is the program for Commencement:

- Invocation Rev. L. M. Halling
- Chorus By School
"Song of Welcome"
- Salutatory Rosalie Amlie
"Chemistry, a Vital Force in our Everyday Life."
- Chorus By School
"Columbia, Beloved"
- Chorus By School
"Be Glad, Lass and Lad"
- Address O. J. Hanson
"The Man Worth While"
- Chorus By School
"Springtime Revelries"
- Valedictory Howard Lewis
"Universal Education—An American Ideal"
- Presentation of Diplomas.
- Benediction Rev. Halling