

and first and second on Anconas.

Howard Lewis, who is attending the A. C., won special high honors last week in a contest given by the college, wherein a large number of students competed for high scores in preparing live stock for show purposes. Howard was selected to prepare a polled Angus steer, and his showing was so excellent that he was awarded a silver cup for first prize.

Perhaps one of the most enjoy-