

SACRED CONCERT

Choral Union of the Cooperstown Circuit of the Lutheran Young Peoples Societies., Cooperstown, Monday evening, July 11, 1921, at 8 o'clock.

- 1 Today There is Ringing—F. Melius Christianson.
- 2 The Promised Land—A. Soderman.
- 3 Trumpet solo—Miss Clara Overby.
- 4 Now the Day is Over—Oscar Borg
- 5 My Task—Ashford.

Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me. Ceronia—Walter Kelly, boy soprano, soloist for the Million Dollar Band.

- 6 Talk—Rev. Natwick.
- 7 Den Store Hvide Flok—E. Craig Solo and Male Chorus.
- 8 Trombone Solo—E. E. Duas.
- 9 'Tis the Evening's Holy Hour.
- 10 Landsighting (Olov Tryvason) Edw Craig.

Accompanist—Miss Clara Duas.
Choral Leader—A. O. Christian-son, O. R. Overby, assistant.

The mixed chorus will consist of about 150 voices and the male chorus of about 50 voices. The soloists are experts in their respective lines and special mention should be made of Walter Kelly the Boy Soprano who was with the Million Dollar band as their soloist.

Prof J. G. Wickney of Concordia college will be the main speaker of the convention, together with a missionary speaker whose name will be announced later.

The dates for the convention are July 10 and 11. Opening service will be held Sunday morning at 10:30. Different choirs and soloists will sing at the different sessions.

Tickets for the concert will be sold at 50 cents.