

- making a few of the leaguers stick a t little longer, his speech here was of no good, so far as changing the sentiment is concerned. He did express a beautiful sentiment in his closing remarks, when he said that "after election let all co-operate to make North Dakota the best state in the union." That's just what we're going to do, Bill, but you're not going to be our attorney general. You might be on that plantation in Mexico.