

the name of a daughter.

The free movie given Monday evening was attended by a packed house when a four-reel feature and the first episode of the new serial, "Winners of the West," was shown. This serial promises to be one of the best ever shown on the local screen.

By the way, the Department held