"Peg o' My Heart" is a comedy of youth in three acts. Peg, a poor Irish girl living in New York, is made an heiress by the death of her uncle, and is called to England to be reared by an aristocratic aunt. She is like a duck out of water in these surroundings, but she wins her way and also a worthy Englishman named Jerry. A clean play with plenty of wit and fun. Don't miss it!

Good "peppy" music between the acts.

Admission 25c and 50c.

April 27, at 8 o'clock, at the Lyric Theatre
