

with them in their bereavement.

The Sons of Norway lodge will present a one-act play in the Norwegian language, at the opera house, Friday evening, April 15. The play is "Koleriksen," in which four men and two ladies take part. At the conclusion of the play a rommegrod supper will be served, and that followed by a dance.

The Binford young people who are