

railroad at Dilworth.

The members of the McHenry high school, assisted by their professor, Mr. Hogan, put on a most creditable performance of the play, "Uncle Sam," in the Binford opera house, Friday evening. Each character in the cast was well selected and carried out his or her role in fine shape, specialties were introduced between acts, which were very much enjoyed by the audience. The dance number was given by six little girls was heartily applauded. A dance was given after the show.
