

The Union Ragadores played to a small crowd at the opera house on Tuesday evening. The bad condition of the roads contributed to cause of the small attendance, and others remained away in anticipation of the Odd Fellows dance tomorrow night. The Union Ragadores are managed by Harold Olson, a former Coopers-town boy, and it is one of the very best dance orchestras that has played in Binford. Though they lost money here on this trip, the advertising they received will more than make up for this loss when they appear here again, which will probably be in about a month or six weeks.

---