

H. J. Maurer is making extensive improvements in his hotel building. The interior is being changed - by removing all the walls as far back as the living rooms, making one large room. Mr. Maurer is planning on installing a horse-shoe counter and tables and leasing the place for restaurant purposes.

William Davidson of Coopers and Lybrand