

---

A pleasant farewell party was held in the lodge rooms Monday evening, the guest of honor being Miss Elizabeth Monsebrotten. About forty ladies attended the affair and the evening was enjoyably spent in playing games, dancing and visiting. At midnight a most delightful lunch was served. In behalf of those present, Mrs. West presented Miss Monsebrotten with a creamer and sugar in cut glass and a set of six dainty sherbet glasses as a token of their friendship and of the esteem in which she is held in this community, and to which the honor guest responded with pleasing and appreciative words. Miss Monsebrotten has long been a faithful and efficient saleslady for C. F. Ringlee & Sons, with whom her services ended when the store burned down last week. She departed today for her home at Grafton. Miss Monsebrotten is a member of the local Rebekah lodge, where her absence will be felt, besides many other friends in Binford who regret the departure of the young lady from our midst.

The exchange of greeting cards has