

A dance will be given after the play.

Assessor Herman Osen is busy making his regular yearly visit to the property owners of the village. Mr. Osen also has the work of registering all the voters at this time for the primary election which is to be held in June. He has promised to furnish The Times with the ages of all women voters in town for publication after his work is completed.

It is reported that Abraham Thid: