

handsome gifts.

The masquerade dance given last Friday evening drew a large crowd of both dancers and spectators. The music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. J. Boisjolie, Joe Boisjolie, V. F. Nelson and H. A. Brown. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Oscar Alm and Henry Hanson for being the best walzing couple, Miss Laura Rice for best looking costume, and Herman Osen for the most comic attire. Dancing continued until a late hour, and those present had a most enjoyable time.
