

be an annual event.

Binford again lost one of its fine families this week, when P. A. Overby, the tailor, removed to Cooperstown to make his home. Mr. Overby closed his shop here and has accepted a position with The Model Clothing company at Cooperstown, because business was too slack here for him to continue running the shop. However, what is Binford's loss is Cooperstown's gain, and we sincerely hope that when conditions better themselves, Mr. Overby will return to Binford again.