

A. W. Peterson, who went to Devils Lake last week as a delegate to the American Legion convention, returned home Saturday, and reports that they had a fine time, and heard some splendid speakers. Mrs. Peterson accompanied her husband as far as Hamar, where she remained to visit relatives.