

TIMES EDITOR HAS BEEN APPOINTED NEW POSTMASTER

J. A. KNAPP, PRESENT INCUMBENT, WILL RETIRE AFTER EIGHT YEARS SERVICE—MISS BRILL TO REMAIN

Official advices from Washington, this week, confirmed the nomination of C. E. Peterson, editor of The Binford Times, to become postmaster at Binford, succeeding J. A. Knapp, who has held the position for the past eight years. The new appointee will assume charge as soon as the usual formalities are completed, such as execution of bond and commission issued by the postoffice department.

Miss May Brill, who has been Mr. Knapp's assistant, will retain her position under the new postmaster. Miss Brill was one of the applicants for the position, but was ineligible on account of being under age. She is a very efficient and accommodating assistant, and the fact that she is to remain in her present capacity will meet with approval by the patrons of the office.

The retiring postmaster has been a very obliging official, and during his regime has raised the office up from fourth to third class. Other noteworthy improvements have also been made, such as the installation of new steel fixtures, cancelling machine and other minor changes.
