

as you.

C. E. Peterson returned to Binford Tuesday; from a ten days vacation, spent with relatives at Alexandria, Ashby, and Aitken, Minnesota. A brother, J. D., and wife, of Cooperstown, were also on the trip. We had a most enjoyable time. The visit to the iron ore mines on the Cuyuna range was especially interesting to the writer. We had the privilege to descend into an underground mine, 360 feet to the deepest drift, and this to a novice was a rare treat.
