
4-SPOT WINS COOPERSTOWN

ALDERMANIC SEAT IN TIE

A 4-spot card drawn from a deck settled a tie contest in that city on alderman between Charles Houghton and P. K. Moe, in favor of the former.

Mr. Houghton, drawing first, pulled a 4-spot. It looked as though the goddess of chance had frowned on him. But Mr. Moe drew the humble deuce.

At the reorganization meeting of the city council, Emil Nelson, former sheriff, was appointed chief of police, succeeding Martin Rood, who did not seek reappointment.

C. A. Porterville was named city assessor.
