

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pritz went to Grand Forks last week, where they were called by the illness of their daughter, Miss Irene, who attends the university. The attack being appendicitis, she was operated upon Monday morning. Mr. Pritz returned home yesterday and says that the patient is getting along fine.