

ment. They can play anything.

Otto Pritz returned home Saturday from Cooperstown, where he had met with the board of county commissioners. Being snowbound Mr. Pritz was compelled to remain at the county seat until train service was resumed on the branch.