

... on the part of the boss.

Leo Pusc came up from St. Cloud, Saturday to make preparations for the auction sale of his personal property, which was held Tuesday. The sale was very successful, realizing a great deal more than was anticipated. Mr. Pusc expects to set up his affairs here within a few days and will then move his family to St. Cloud, where he is employed at the Great Northern shops.