

...by, the tailor for prices.

The Aneta orchestra furnished excellent music at the Red Willow lake pavilion last Friday evening. The dance broke up early, however, on account of a thunder storm that came up right after midnight.

Roy Iverson, of San Diego, Calif.