

Electric Lights at Lake Resort

Negotiations for the purchase of electric lighting system for the Red Willow lake park, have been completed by the committee, and an order placed for a Delco plant of sufficient size to light the dance pavilion, and also numerous lights about the grounds. Carpenters are at work erecting a building to house the plant. It is planned to have the light turned on for the first dance, Friday, June 9.