

Quite a large crowd attended the opening dance at Red Willow lake last Friday evening. All the neighboring towns were represented on the floor and everybody had a good time. The music was of the best, and was furnished by the All Star orchestra of Devils lake. Another dance is scheduled for Friday night this week with the well known Playmakers orchestra delivering the music.

---