

the N. J. Olsen & Sons line of houses

A large crowd gathered at Red Willow lake again Sunday to spend the day. There was boating, fishing, bathing and indoor ball games for amusements. In the afternoon, following a few minutes of community singing led by Chas. Simpson, Rev. A. L. Lantz, of Aneta, gave an excellent talk on "The World, the Church, and the Kingdom," which was thoroughly enjoyed by all who heard him.

---