

---

The fourth of July will be celebrated at Red Willow lake again this year, is the word given out by directors of the association.

It's too early yet to give any details of the various attractions that are to make up the day's program, but The Times is authorized to state that every effort will be made to put on the grandest Fourth of July celebration ever held in eastern North Dakota.

That Red Willow lake is THE ideal spot for a celebration is admitted by everyone. This beautiful spot has many advantages over other places where the usual Fourth of July observance is held. It affords an opportunity that is lacking in the towns or cities for a for varied program of sports, and provides other means of enjoyment that many prefer over the noise attendant upon outdoor sports, in way of boating, bathing and fishing.

The Times will give all the details as soon as available, but plan to spend the day at Red Willow.

---