

RED WILLOW LAKE BREEZES

Miss Vera Wadeson, who has been acting as chaperone for the Sanborn Camp Fire Girls, left Wednesday for her home. Miss Ada Stephan arrived the same day to fill the position vacated by Miss Wadeson.

Miss Irene Pritz came out yesterday to join the Camp Fire Girls for the balance of the season.

Harold Ehlers is visiting the various patrols this week.

Indoor baseball is the chief amusement of the campers, the water being too cold for swimming. Out of three games played between the Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls, the boys have won two.

Mesdames West and Asmus came out Wednesday evening and entertained the Fox Patrol, of which Harold Bakke is leader. Scout Master Bixby presided at the excellent supper that was served.

The Binford Camp Fire Girls have been celebrating their vacation with horse back riding, marshmallow roasts, and other stunts.

Miss Shelp is directing the making of emblematic beaded head bands for the Camp Fire Girls.

Harold Maurer had the misfortune yesterday to fall out of a tree, a distance of about ten feet, and escaped with only a bad shaking up.

Manfred Knapp, leader of the Wolf Patrol, reports the shortage of food, which he believes is due to the voracious appetites of Pinkerton, Donald Truscott and Carl Norstrum.

Elias Halling, according to advices, is feeding the Eagle Patrol on the fat of the land.