

Cooperstown.

The excessive heat Sunday forenoon, and the sudden appearance of a violent wind storm in the early afternoon, prevented the Masonic picnic from being the success that was anticipated. The Aneta band was on the grounds early, however, and furnished some very excellent music. Prof. Arvold, of Fargo, delivered a splendid address. The storm ended the program right there and people hurriedly left for their homes.

A sale of more than usual interest