

take part in the program.

A large crowd took advantage of the nice evening last Friday and enjoyed the dance at the pavilion at Red Willow. The Kensal orchestra furnished the music, which was so good that everybody danced until a late hour. The same orchestra will play for Friday night's dance, so don't miss it.

Mr. Dango and family started out