
Lake Association Rejected All Bids

Bids for concessions to be let at Red Willow lake for the season of 1921 were opened by the Board of Directors last Friday, and after a thorough discussion of the various proposals it was decided to reject all of them and issue another call for bids to be opened next Monday, April 18. A slight change appears in the notice printed elsewhere in this issue.
