

run justice.

Deputy Game Warden Harold A. Brown has received notice that the state game commission has succeeded in securing twenty-five pairs of Hungarian partridges for placing in North Dakota, and that five pairs of these will be allotted the Red Willow Lake game refuge. The birds will be brot here during the spring. They are game imported from Hungary.