

Steve Rorvig received word from St. Paul this week, that his mother, Mrs. Peter Rorvig, must undergo a second operation on her leg. Some weeks ago she submitted to an operation when her leg was amputated at the knee. Gangrene has set in, which necessitates the amputation of possibly the remainder of the affected member.