

One of the most enjoyable social events of the month among the younger set was the party given at the Steve Rorvig home Saturday evening, by Palmer and Evelyn Rorvig. Thirty boys and girls were present, and they filled the speeding hours with much merrymaking until a late hour. Mrs. Rorvig served a delightful lunch, to which everyone did full justice. The guests are lavish in their praise of the hospitality of the Rorvig family.