

Lars Anderson returned Monday from Fargo, where he had taken his brother, Clarence, to the hospital for an operation for appendicitis. The operation was performed Saturday morning, and was successful.

Courtenay News in Kensal Progress: Andrew Sinclair, accompanied by his daughter Esther, and sons, Bruce and Ralph, arrived by a Ford from California Tuesday evening, after being on the road for fourteen days. Up until Monday evening they had slept out every night. They were delayed a day and a half in Nebraska by a recent snow storm but report roads on the whole fairly good, having had to pull out of mud once or twice on the entire trip. They are bound for their farm near Cooperstown, where they will be joined later by Mrs. Sinclair an old time resident of Courtenay, Mr. Sinclair having been the first cashier of the Stutsman County Bank. While here they were the guests of the L. H. Larson and G. E. Berg families.
