

Leavenworth, Echo: F. A. Sinclair arrived home last Thursday morning from his autumn sojourn in Canada. He brought a car of stock back to Spokane where he sold it. Times were not very brisk in Alberta and Saskatchewan. Crops were poor and money hard to get. But "hope springs eternal in the human breast" and better times are looked forward to with confidence.

---

---