

SUTTON NEWS

Monday afternoon a post mortem examination of the body of Knute Bergstad was held and the stomach removed and sent to a laboratory to have the contents analyzed. Dr. Lewis performed the autopsy. The burial was at Glenfield cemetery on Tuesday.

The I. O. O. F. dance last Thursday evening was well attended and a great time is reported. The Wimbledon orchestra played and Phil Lambert was chief boss of the floor. The first winners in the waltz contest were Homer Boisjolie and Miss Etta Kingsley. The winners of the second prize were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fallen.

There will be a district meeting of Odd Fellows comprising the Coopers-town, Binford, Dazey and Sutton lodges, at Sutton, Monday March 28. This will be quite an event and a great many visitors will doubtless be here, including some grand officers of note.—Sutton Reporter.