

Sutton Reporter: Thursday a road building outfit was brought to Sutton, and Friday will be turned loose on the job of building a state road from here to the one three miles north of town. This is going to be a grand thing for folks who desire to get out of here to points north, east or west, for it will mean practically open roads all the year round. Traffic in the spring will be possible at least a month earlier than usual.

The Old Settlers' Picnic drew a