

side-door pullman.

T. M. Swingen of Cooperstown tarried in Binford a short while last Thursday, on his return home from Lakota, where he had been making a bid for the concrete culvert work on the state road in Nelson county. He was awarded all of this work.

The annual school election is cal-