

and inflicting wounds on his body.

Sam Thoreson, one of the pioneer farmers of the north country, was a caller in Binford last Friday. Sam was a frequent visitor in Binford before the G. N. extension to Devils Lake, and since there are closer marketing points, his visits here are few and far between. It's a pleasure to greet these old timers who have done so much in the country's development.

---